Surveillance Camera Thefts

The Wichita Police Department and Crime Stoppers are asking for tips in multiple cases involving the theft and vandalism of surveillance cameras.

Since February, an unknown suspect has caused thousands of dollars in losses to USD 259 properties as well as an Old Town business. The suspect has been observed on surveillance cameras removing cameras from properties and leaving in a white Chrysler 300. To date, three schools, including Hyde Elementary School, Mead Middle School, and Clark Elementary School, have fallen victim to the crime.

If anyone has information on this crime, Crime Stoppers is encouraging them to submit an ANONYMOUS tip. If it leads to an arrest, they may be eligible for a cash reward. Tipsters can submit an ANONYMOUS tip by one of three ways:

1. Download the mobile P3 app;
2. Submit a tip at www.wichitasedgwickcountycrimestoppers.com; or
3. Call 316-267-2111 Crime Stoppers is a division of the non-profit Wichita Metro Crime Commission
