Commercial Burglary Case

(WICHITA, Kan.) – Crime Stoppers of Wichita/Sedgwick County is seeing information regarding a burglary that occurred on February 2nd in the 3800 block of W Esthner in Wichita.

In the early morning hours of February 2nd, two suspects broke into a job site and stole construction items from inside. A surveillance camera captured video of two suspects, one of them holding what appeared to be a pry bar. The suspects are described as white males, one wearing a gray hoodie with a black vest and a black beanie. The other was wearing an all gray outfit with a mask on. The suspects may be responsible for additional burglaries in that area.
